

Internal Revenue Service

Notice Of Dishonor

Notice to agent is notice to principal, notice to principal is notice to agent. Responses MUST be received within ten (10) days, signed, under oath and penalty of perjury in order to be valid. Failure to respond or non responsive computer generated responses will forever create permanent estoppel and a shared understanding by acquiescence barring these matters from being contested in the future.

Dear internal Revenue Service

I am writing to inform you that you have dishonored my Notice of Understanding, Intent, Claim of Right, and Permanent Estoppel by acquiescence, by failing to accept and respond, which was delivered to you via certified mail on _____, evidenced by the return receipt bearing a signature which I possess. Through your silence you have confirmed that we share an understanding regarding all points in the original notice received by you on _____, in which I expressed my understanding and intentions regarding discharging debts against revenues generated by my birth certificate originating from CUSIP ID #_____. As stated in that notice I am exempt from levy, the Exemption ID# is
(_____)

This notice is to both inform you of the fact that you have dishonored my notice, and to give you another opportunity to respond and to clarify anything you do not understand. You have another ten (10) days to respond to this original notice that I have properly served upon you. I look forward to your response and an opportunity to discuss this matter. Again, VALID responses must be under oath, bond, and full commercial liability, and received within ten (10) days from the date this notice is received. Thank you very much for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Notary
