

The Declaration of Independence (1776), the Constitution for the United States of America (1789), and the Bill of Rights (1791), two hundred years of American case law (I.e. common law), and the state Constitution of the sovereign state of the Georgia Republic, will be honored, respected, and promoted and defended.

I have already declared notoriously My "Sui Juris" status in connection with My Property and name, If any agency of the government disputes the above claimed status In connection with the "name" sworn and sealed in this affidavit, I demand that they Immediately produce "all" documents and/or contracts" being-in-due-course," pursuant To U.C.C. 3-305,52 and U.C.C. 3-505, that create ANY legal disability whatsoever to the Claim "Sui Juris" status and "Alieni Juris" relating to My "name".

I am NOT a "ward of the state", nor legally incompetent or disabled by ANY valid contract. If I elect to have effective assistance of counsel for any reason whatsoever, such An election by Me is NOT, under any circumstances, to be construed as a revocation or Waiver of My Rights thus secured.

Pursuant to Title 28 United States Code, Section 1746 (1) and executed "without the United States," I do hereby affirm, under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the United States of America and under the laws of the Georgia Republic, that the foregoing is true And correct, to the best of My current information, knowledge, and belief.

And Further deponent saith not:

I now affix My signature and official seal to all of the above affirmations WITH EXPLICIT RESERVATION OF ALL OF MY UNALIENABLE RIGHTS, WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO ANY OF THOSE RIGHTS, PURSUANT TO UCC 1-102, 1-103,6.
