

The purported laws in the complaints, which the movant is said to have violated, are referenced to various laws found printed in the Georgia "Statutes" books, I have looked up the laws charged against me in these books and found no enacting clause for any of these laws. A citizen is not expected or required to search through others records or books for the enacting authority, If such enacting authority is not "on the face" of the laws which are referenced in a complaint, then "they are not laws of this state", and thus are not laws to which I am subject.

Laws Must be Published and Recorded with Enacting Clauses, Joiner v. State supra.

The historical usage and application of an enacting clause has been for them to be printed and published along with the body of the law, thus appearing "on the face" of the law
