SEEKING CLARIFICATION / NOTICE OF PERMANENT ESTOPPEL BY ACQUIESCENCE

ANSWER TO Ticket # XXXX

Dear City of Los Angeles:

I hereby reject the above referenced parking citation. Please respond within 10 days of receipt of this letter of rejection or you will forever create permanent estoppel by acquiescence to all points not refuted, forever barring this matter from being raised again.

I accept your notice conditionally. I accept that you are trying to communicate something apparently of great importance. But I hereby discharge your notice by seeking clarification as to exactly what you are trying to tell me. I assume you are claiming I owe you money because the word "amount due" appears on the actual notice.

Transactions of security interests require the consent of both parties, as do adjudication services thereto, and I do hereby deny said consent to engage in any transactions of security interests.

The conditions by which I accept this notice of an alleged debt are simple. I hereby request a signed original bill (which was not duly presented), and a copy of the lawful 2-party contract that makes me liable to pay it. It is clear that this is not a criminal matter as there are no allegations of a breach of the peace. I will presume that if the information requested herein is not provided, that it does not exist and that I am not liable for the charges.

I have exercised due diligence in locating the proper mailing address to answer this notice and, as such, do not understand nor consent to stand under the cause and nature of the charges with respect to the above citation. I expect the facts herein discussed to cause the withdrawal of this charge related to the referenced citation.

I was parked on a public road, not interfering with traffic or blocking anyone. In the spirit of helping to fund my community I deposited $10 in quarters in a parking meter. I returned in 2 1/2 hours and found the citation. Apparently, the meters run out after 2 hours regardless of how much money is deposited, which is not posted on said meters.

Regardless, I have a fundamental right to temporarily leave my property and/or occupy public property anywhere I choose so long as I am not violating anyone's rights or causing damage or injury to personal property or others.

In this regard, the rights of other individuals do not supersede my right to these public spaces. Just as no officer can demand that I move my physical body from where I am standing in a public park in order to allow another individual to occupy that space, individual rights of private property upon public property are always upon a first come first serve basis and existing availability of space.

It is no different than parking my private automobile in a public space, than physically occupying that same space with my physical body. Therefore, I am not liable as there has been no crime committed nor is there an injured party.

I hereby declare attest and swear that all information in this document is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and that I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and do accept personal responsibility for all statements made and facts presented.

Most Sincerely,

Me
